

INVICTUS

Out of the night that covers me
Black as the pit from pole to pole
I thank whatever gods may be
For my unconquerable soul.

In the fell clutch of circumstance,
I have not winced nor cried aloud.
Under the bludgeonings of chance,
My head is bloody, but unbowed.

Beyond this place of wrath and tears,
Looms but the Horror of the shade.

And yet the menace of the years
Finds, and shall find, me unafraid.

It matters not how strait the gate
How charged with punishments the scroll
I am the master of my fate:
I am the captain of my soul.

Team7 Letter Writing Challenge

To help our staff get to know you, we would like to set you a letter writing challenge before you start in September.

We would like you to write a letter to your tutor to tell them all about yourself. We will make sure that your tutor has read your letter before they see you in September.

You can include anything that you think is important for them to know. We have included some questions to help you below - you don't have to answer all of them!

What is your name and when is your birthday?	Who do you live with and who is in your family?
Do you have any pets?	What is your favourite subject at primary school?
What do you think you are good at?	What do you think you might need help with?
What are your hobbies?	What type of music do you like?
What is your favourite Sport?	Is there anything that worries you about coming to TPS?
What is the best book you have read?	What do you want to achieve in your first few days at secondary school?
Would you like to be involved in student leadership?	Are you interested in any extracurricular activities? And if so which ones

You can include pictures or photographs too, if you want.

This is not a competition - it is an opportunity to show your tutor how brilliant you are! We are really looking forward to reading your letters and welcoming you to our school.
